

PUBLIC POLICY SERIES

QUARTERLY

ADVOCACY | OUTREACH CIVIC EDUCATION

Convening the business community around issues that matter. This educational series is open to all members of the community with the goal of fostering dialog about the impact of federal, state, and local policymaking on day-to-day life in the Fox Cities. Attendees have the opportunity to give direct feedback to lawmakers and leaders, as well as build connections within our community.

FEATURING:

- Four in-person events, including networking and lunch
- Authentic conversations with federal, state, and local lawmakers
- Annual “CEO of the City” panel with regional mayors
